

Latino Studies Seminar Series

Fall 2014

All sessions will be held in Mckenna Hall, Room 112-114.
Lunch will be provided at all sessions.

Monday, September 22, 12:00 noon

Jennifer Lee, Professor of Sociology, University of California Irvine, “Reframing Culture and Success: Why Mexicans are the Most Successful Immigrants in America.”
Cosponsored by the Mexico Working Group

Wednesday, October 8, 12:00 noon

Lindsey Passenger Wieck, PhD student, History, “Lattes, Skyscrapers, and Comunidad: Fighting for Space and Safety in Postwar San Francisco.”

Tuesday, November 4, 12:30 p.m.

Amy Langenkamp, O'Shaughnessy Assistant Professor
Chair of Educational Studies, Sociology, “Latinos' Transition to College: How Families and Schools Are Sculpting the Next American Generation.”

RSVP to Idalia Maldonado,
imaldona@nd.edu or 574-631-3672